Parents must supervise their children at water activities.

Young children will need parental supervision at most activities.

Swimming is only allowed when supervised by lifeguards. No lifeguard = no swimming!

Adult-only activities are marked on the schedule. No kids, please.

Equipment will be available for basketball and other sports throughout the weekend.

In case of inclement weather, the rec hall, theater, and dining hall will be available for indoor activities including gaga, arts and crafts, puzzles, and board games.
